

Cheers to New Beginnings & 20 Years of The Chaeli Campaign!

"In 2024, let abundance be our mindset, and celebrations be our daily ritual."
- Zelda Mycroft, CEO

As the confetti settles and the echoes of "Happy New Year!" fade, we at The Chaeli Campaign find ourselves with a heart overflowing with gratitude and eyes sparkling with excitement. A brand new year unfolds before us, but more importantly, it marks a monumental milestone: our 20th birthday!

The journey to this point wouldn't have been possible without you. Your unwavering support, tireless dedication, and shared passion have fuelled every achievement, overcome every obstacle, and kept the fire of inclusion burning bright. From your generous donations to your volunteer hours and fervent advocacy, you are the backbone of our success, the wind beneath our wings.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you. As we step into this celebratory year, we are brimming with ideas, ambitions, and a renewed commitment to building inclusive communities. We can't wait to share them with you, collaborate on exciting projects, and continue making a difference together.

Stay tuned for exclusive details about our birthday celebrations throughout the year, and know that every step of the way, we'll be raising a toast to you – our incredible community. Here's to a vibrant new year and two decades of building a brighter future for disabled children.

With immense gratitude,

The Chaeli Campaign Team
